

CENTRAL INTELLIGENCE AGENCY

WASHINGTON, D.C. 20505

STAT

Your husband has been awarded the CIA Intelligence Star for his courageous and exemplary performance of duties as chief of a Foreign Broadcast Information Service field bureau caught in the midst of military hostilities.

In making award presentations at Agency headquarters, I always point out that such special recognition also extends to the family members who share in the contributions and hardships peculiar to our service.

Your role was extraordinary even in this illustrious company. Standing beside your husband, actively participating in bureau reporting on the crisis, and supporting other FBIS employees and their families through the period of fighting, evacuation, and resettlement, you have earned our admiration and set an example in the finest tradition of American intelligence.

I want you to know that you earned a share of this Star, and that what you did will always be a source of pride to FBIS, the CIA and your country.

Sincerely,

W. E. Colby
Director
